

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota is celebrating its centennial in 1989; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota's towns and cities, from the smallest to the largest, are the heart and soul of the state, and each are blessed with a rich history and enduring heritage; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Eloise Brown and Hallie Young have devoted their lives to the betterment of their community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Eloise Brown and Hallie Young have given much to South Dakota and the community of Kadoka during their lifetimes and it is fitting that we honor Eloise and Hallie; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Eloise and Hallie's years as productive and outstanding citizens of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 30, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join the community of Kadoka in honoring them for having been born, raised, and having always lived in the Kadoka area.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
